

2025–2026 Parent Guide & FAQs

1. Where do I park when dropping off or picking up my dancer?

- Parking is available in the main lot directly in front of the studio.
- Please be mindful of reserved spaces and avoid blocking driveways or fire lanes.
- For safety, we encourage parents to escort younger dancers to and from the studio doors.

2. What happens if my dancer misses a class?

- Consistent attendance is key to progress, but we understand life happens!
- Missed classes may be made up in a similar-level class (pending availability).
- Please notify the studio in advance if your dancer will be absent.

3. What should I know about the recital season?

- Our annual recital is the highlight of the year and a celebration of our dancers' hard work.
- Costume and performance details will be shared well in advance.
- Tickets go on sale in the spring—watch your email and the studio bulletin board for updates.
- Participation is strongly encouraged, but please communicate with us early if you have a scheduling conflict.
- Our show is scheduled for the first or second Saturday in June - dates are released in January

4. How can I stay updated with important studio information?

- Check your email regularly for updates from the studio.
- Contact our front desk if you would like to update your contract information

5. Who do I contact if I have questions or concerns?

- Our front desk staff is available during class hours for quick questions.
- You can text or call us at (860) 530- 6683 with all your questions!
- For detailed concerns, please email us at info@movementsdanceacademy.com to connect directly with our staff or director.
